71st Annual Key Club International Convention / July 2–6, 2014 / Anaheim, CA

Each Key Club can select two delegates and two alternates to represent their club at the House of Delegates at the 2014 Key Club International convention. Delegates will elect the 2014–15 leaders of Key Club International and vote on any proposed amendments to the bylaws.

This certifies that the persons named have been selected as delegates by the club. At the convention, there will be a credentials registration area where each delegate will be issued a delegate wristband, which allows entry into the House of Delegates.
